

EXPERIENCED ATTORNEY
DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE ATTACHE - PARIS
OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS (OIA)
CRIMINAL DIVISION
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
WASHINGTON, DC

About the Position: The United States Department of Justice, Criminal Division, Office of International Affairs (OIA) is seeking an experienced attorney to serve as the Department of Justice Attache in France. The attorney will serve as the principal representative of the Assistant Attorney General of the Criminal Division of the Department of Justice in France, and work as a member of OIA's European team, responsible for extradition and mutual legal assistance requests between the U.S. and France. The attorney will work directly with U.S. and French law enforcement authorities on issues related to criminal investigations and prosecutions, as well as supporting the Department in the formulation and execution of bilateral and multilateral criminal justice programs and policies. The attorney will be stationed at the United States Embassy in Paris.

This tour is for two years with the possibility of a one year extension and is expected to begin in July of 2007

Responsibilities and Opportunity Offered: The responsibilities of this position include:

- working directly with French Ministry of Justice and senior French law enforcement authorities on criminal investigations and prosecutions, and serving generally as liaison with those offices and federal, state and local prosecutors and police agencies in the U.S. to ensure the law enforcement interests of the United States and the Department of Justice are understood and given adequate consideration by French authorities;
- developing and facilitating the execution of U.S.-French requests for extradition and legal assistance in criminal investigations and prosecutions, and resolving problems regarding those requests;
- working with and acting as a legal adviser to U.S. law enforcement personnel stationed at the Embassy on operational and case-related issues, including the conduct of joint investigations with French authorities;
- developing expertise in the criminal laws and procedures of France to assist U.S. authorities with questions on law enforcement matters, and assisting French authorities with questions regarding U.S. criminal laws and procedures, with the goal of achieving better coordination and cooperation through mutual understanding;
- working closely with Embassy and senior Department of State (DOS) officials on international criminal matters, ranging from terrorism, cyber-crime and narcotics initiatives to money laundering and fraud cases, with a particular view towards clearly articulating the interests of the Department of Justice, and working toward effective integration of those interests with the policies and priorities of the Embassy and the Department of State; and

- serving as liaison between and among the Criminal Division, the Office of International Affairs, senior representatives of the French Government, U.S. federal officials, and state and local agencies in connection with international criminal matters.

Required Qualifications: Applicants must possess a J.D. degree, be duly licensed and authorized to practice as an attorney under the laws of a State, territory, or the District of Columbia, have at least five (5) years of post-J.D. legal experience, be a current employee of the Department of Justice with extensive experience in the field of criminal law and the prosecution of criminal offenders, and have a strong background working with international requests for extradition and mutual legal assistance. Applicants must have professional proficiency in the French language. Applicants must also have, or be able to obtain, and maintain a Top Secret security clearance.

Applicants should also have:

1. significant experience in handling complicated extradition and mutual legal assistance matters;
2. significant experience with federal criminal cases involving international issues;
3. significant experience dealing with complex legal and policy issues;
4. working knowledge of federal and state judicial systems, prosecution, investigative and regulatory agencies;
5. ability to establish and maintain harmonious relations with state and federal law enforcement agencies, representatives of foreign governments and the public;
6. experience dealing with international organizations and foreign governments in law enforcement matters; and
7. ability to implement and effectively advocate Departmental policies on all matters relating to the assigned areas of responsibility.

Travel: Routine travel as necessary.
